

European DDC Users Group (EDUG)
930 Archaeology Working Group

First meeting

August 12, 2008, 10:30 – 12:30

Hilton, Québec City, room to be announced

Members of the group:

Magdalena Svanberg, National Library of Sweden (chair)

Maria Alexandraki, Εθνικό Κέντρο Βιβλίου, National Book Centre of Greece (affiliated member)

Brigitte Bernhard, Deutsche Nationalbibliothek

Ingebjørg Rype, National Library of Norway

Vera Uhlmann, Schweizerische Nationalbibliothek

Agenda:

1. Welcome
2. News regarding members and ways of communication
3. Report from work spring 2008
4. Working plan 2008-2009, Future meetings
5. Discussion geographic division of 931-939 / Table 2—3
6. Discussion time limits for Archaeology
7. Closing

Terms of Reference

European DDC Users' Group (EDUG) - 930 Archaeology Working Group

- exists to improve the 930 Archaeology provision for works in the discipline archaeology in Europe and works on European antiquities.
- gives recommendations to the EPC and the Dewey editorial team.
- reports about proposals at EDUG' annual business meeting.

The focus of the group is the European archaeology in Europe and works on European antiquities. More general issues should be addressed only when relevant for the representation of these subjects. The proposals should emphasize

- geographic subdivision of 931-939
- chronological subdivision of 931-939
- the time limit of 930
- treatment of archaeological methods and antiquities from historical periods, i.e. medieval archaeology
- expansions of 930.1028 for different archaeological methods
- provision for specific topics of archaeology

Proposals on other topics are welcome, as long as they are relevant to the general mission of the working group.

Timetable, working plan, further meetings

- Until August 2008:
Formulate terms of reference and a working plan.
Identify problems in 930 to address.
Collect existing papers and articles on 930.
- August 2008:
Meet during IFLA and decide which areas to start with.
- Fall 2008:
Chart the needs in different European countries in the chosen areas.
Prepare a discussion paper and recommendations on the first areas.
- April 2009:
Discuss the draft paper before the full EDUG meeting.
Share the results at the full EDUG meeting.
Choose which areas to continue with.
- Until August 2009:
Finalize paper on the first areas.
Chart the needs in different European countries in the new areas.
- August 2009:
Meet again during IFLA.
Discuss the final paper on the first areas.
Discuss the new areas.
- Fall 2009:
Present the paper on the first areas to EPC.
Prepare a discussion paper and recommendations on the new areas.