Information Scotland

Introduction

Information Scotland is the journal of the Chartered Institute of Library and Information Professionals in Scotland (CILIPS), the Scottish branch of the professional body for librarians and information specialists. The journal is the main communication channel for the Scottish library and information community, providing CILIPS members with authoritative and up-to-date coverage of the latest developments and research in the field. It aims to highlight examples of best practice and act as a stimulus for debate and innovation. It is published bi-monthly and distributed to over 2300 CILIPS members, representing all sectors of the profession, as well as an international subscription base of more than 150.
